HISTORY OF INVESTIGATION: This is an on view arrest and investigation by team 6520C, Gang investigation Division. While touring the area of 77th and Langley, R/Os observed a black escalade parked at [REDACTED] running with no driver in the drivers seat. At that time R/Os exited their vehicle to see if there were any other occupants in the vehicle. During this time R/Os discovered several occupants inside the vehicle and all of the occupants became evasive and nervous when they were asked where the driver of the vehicle was. During the investigation, PO Kilroy ordered the passenger behind the drivers seat out of the vehicle for officer safety after he placed his hands under his coat when asked to show his hands. During this PO Kilroy observed the subject [REDACTED] place a plastic bag of suspect heroin on the back seat where he was sitting. PO Kilroy detained the subject recovered the suspect heroin and placed the subject into custody.

While securing the vehicle after the suspect narcotics were found, PO Teresi observed the subject know known as [REDACTED] walk in front of the residence of [REDACTED] look into R/Os direction and flee into the rear of the said residence holding his right side. PO Teresi then pursued [REDACTED] and made a forced entry into [REDACTED] and detained [REDACTED] in the kitchen area after R/O observed him coming out of the bathroom. After [REDACTED] was detained a protective pat down was conducted by PO Reno and [REDACTED] freely admitted to possessing two pills of Vicodin on his person without a prescription. [REDACTED] was then placed into custody and read Miranda warnings.

While inside the residence, [REDACTED] and lease holder of the residence gave verbal and signed permission to search the residence after R/O was able to smell a strong odor of cannabis. During a search of the residence PO Teresi recovered 1 Ruger handgun (Inv# [REDACTED]) and the suspect cannabis and cocaine (Inv# [REDACTED]) in the subject [REDACTED] bedroom. During this time PO Reno had conducted an interview with the subject [REDACTED] where he freely stated to PO Reno that he had illicit narcotics and a firearm in his bedroom. The subject [REDACTED] then directed PO Reno to his bedroom where PO Teresi was recovering the firearm and narcotics. During a further interview with [REDACTED] post Miranda, [REDACTED] stated that the gun was his fathers and that he left it in his closet a while ago. [REDACTED] also stated that he smokes and sells weed but only uses cocaine.

During a further search of the residence, PO Kilroy recovered a bundle of USC (Inv# [REDACTED]) on the bathroom floor. When R/os questioned all the occupants in the residence regarding the money, R/Os were unable to get any information regarding ownership. The bundle of USC was then brought to Area Two Police Headquarters where PO Reno contacted the canine unit to conduct a money line up. During this time PO Reno hid the bundle of USC in a closed cabinet in an open room. K9 Sammy was then directed by K9 handler Milovich #18717 to search for the presence of narcotic odors. K9 Sammy conducted a systematic reach of the room and then made a positive indication in front of the cabinet door where the bundle of USC was placed. The money was then recovered and inventoried in A2.

This case should be considered clear closed per arrest and prosecution.
